WRITING PROGRAM

Courses

W 101 - First-Year Writing Workshop (4 Credit Hours) Required of all students during their first year, the W101 course introduces students during their first year, the WTOT course introduces students to the rigors of college-level writing and provides practice in formulating and presenting a significant argument in a cogent essay; in finding, evaluating, and incorporating research into their writing; and in assessing their own work and that of their peers. W101 can be used only to satisfy the "S" Writing GE requirement. Open to First Year students only.