

STATEMENT ON CAMPUS SUSTAINABILITY

Denison is a community committed to being environmentally, socially, and economically sustainable. The college is a signatory to both the American College and University Presidents' Climate Commitments and the International Talloires Declaration for a Sustainable Future. We integrate sustainability into teaching, learning, scholarship, and our daily lives. We also integrate sustainability into how we operate the college. We recognize our responsibility to current and future generations.

More on Denison's commitment to sustainability (<https://denison.edu/campus/green/>).